

#1181 – RT level II Technician

The Company

IRISNDT Corp. (“IRISNDT”) is a world leader in nondestructive testing (“NDT”), servicing Canada, the USA, the United Kingdom, and Australia, providing specialized NDT and inspection services, materials engineering, heat treatment, rope access and bolting services.

Since 1953, the Company has been servicing the oil & gas, petroleum and petrochemical, chemical, power generation, and pipeline industries. A growing organization with a great demand for their services in the market, the Company employs over 1500 staff in the USA, Canada, the U.K., and Australia.

For additional information, please visit www.irisndt.com.

Job Description:

Radiography Level II position is available in the Fort McMurray area.

Rate of pay would be commensurate with experience and certifications held. Successful candidates may be required to join a union affiliated with the QCCC; all applicable benefits as per the union agreement would be available to the successful candidates.

Required Skills and Experience:

- CGSB certification in RT II is required; additional certifications in UT/MT/PT would be considered an asset;
- Some travel (including overnight stays out of town) may be required;
- Ability to work in various environmental conditions;
- Good communication skills, both written and oral; and,
- Valid Driver’s License and pre-access drug and alcohol testing required.

For additional information or to submit applications electronically, please email recruitment.ca@irisndt.com. Resumes without direct reference to the specific role will not be considered, and applicants not being considered will not be contacted.

Posted: 20 July 2020